Focusing on quality and trust to meet needs of the semi-urban population in Ashta and surrounding by providing distinctive priority in health care management under “Dhanvantari Hospital” and “Sunshine Multispecialty Hospital”.

Title of Programme: “Arogya Apalya Dari” (Health at Your Doorstep)

Aim & Objective:

- The main aim of the “Arogya Apalya Dari” health camps is to offer communities, particularly those in underprivileged and isolated locations. Easily accessible, preventive, and curative Ayurvedic healthcare treatment can be provided by these camps.
- These health camps aim to bridge the healthcare gap, promote the importance of preventive care and improve the overall health and well being of the community.

Plan of action:

1. Planning and Coordination: Health camps involve meticulous planning and coordination with preparing schedule and implemented. It includes identification of locations based on health needs. Coordinating with local authorities and healthcare providers, camp arrangements are planned.
